

Avatars of the Paragons

Bank Report

On a sunny Saturday in June, many adventurers gathered at the Summervale School of Law. The Headmaster, Headmistress, Groundskeeper and some additional staff were present to keep the peace and send groups of adventurers into the forest to find and stop an encroaching miasma, while the staff remained to keep the school grounds safe.

Tournaments determined champions (and thus order of entry into the forest) and allies were made. The school made those willing to help honorary members and those who assisted were sorted into one of four houses: Saphir, Greyhyde, Avalon or Catequill. A number of school staff helped run and keep events in order until it was time to attempt to right the imbalance of the Life and Death paragons.

Many fought to restore the Avatar of the Paragon of Life, battling many evils of the forest - and they returned victorious!

Meanwhile, more sought to diminish the Avatar of the Paragon of Death and his assorted goons!

Dangerous though their road was, the adventurers were victorious and the School was saved... only to be attacked by those whom they thought defeated! Returning in mass; the evils they had vanquished returned for a great battle at the school grounds. Eventually, the Heroes and Adventurers prevailed!

Students can now return to the school, and the imbalance between the paragons of Life and Death has been righted.

This of course did not stop rumors from popping up, as tends to happen at schools:

- A Shadowed figure appeared before a handful of the adventurers, word soon spreading; they were warned of a coming doom-- a shimmer of silver in the dark. A Silver Hammer.

- Black Jack (PC) approached the heads of the school and has offered to support the school via a new building, dedicated to the Faith; building plans are to commence within the year, pending Headmaster's approval and groundbreaking ceremony.

- A white, spectral cat has been seen roaming the grounds, and the wolves of Summervale have begin to gather in larger and larger numbers.
